- 155A March 26th, 1864 Civil War Letter with General Sherman Content 12"x18". It reads, "At ...Head Quarters Near Dalton, Ga March 26th, 1864. My friend Bertha, It is with the greatest pleasure that I acknowledge the receipts of your very welcome and interesting letter of the 18th of last month.....to understand that your dear mother was coming ...kept her from writing to me. I hope that before you ...of this she will have recovered and be "all right again". Being at the Department of Health prevents ...me to express the hope that you and your brother enjoy your health, the greatest blessing.... I was sorry that when Simon came back from home he brought no letter for me from you but after consideration and your excuse in the above mentioned letter I found it very reasonable. I think myself highly complimented of your willingness to walk to see me if I should be so fortunate as to procure a leave to go ...home and I really think is a very great inducement to try harder than ever for it. If everything continues quiet as at present I may be at home in about six weeks from now but nothing is certain under the skies and we better not be too certain if we do not want to be disappointed. If I do come do not expect old Sunday lemons in his...go to Meeting....be a squeezed out, dried, and sour lemon. But don't let us say too much. Now.....The raid of Sherman through Mississippi, of which you were mentioning has happily turned out better than I had dared to anticipate and neither Mobile was taken, nor have the Federals gained anything by it. I think they are losers this time. Oh if we were only able to keep them away from around our noble little town, I would not grumble to have them in it, so.....already crippled communication would not bedestroyed. But my dear friend you must not putand tell me that out of a quiet and unassuming ..were pleased to style yourself. I shall find a wife....for you know as well as anybody that I love to see ...faces with a good humour. Than I have heard one of my ...here.....this a young Lady has told him, that my friend Bertha has since we left home, grown to be one of the beauties of our Bluff City. Not willing to flatter you, nor willing to give you a wrong idea about your humble servant in calling this "putting on airs", and may be allowed to say That I always thought you were "good looking" and its indeed a pity that you will....I do not think that you are wrong about Cousin Carrie's friendship and she is really everybody's friend. Her gentle nature and good heartedness have ...her the friendship of many and I think for my own put as much of her as any of my sisters, but it is the same way with the rest of my Lady cousins. They are all sweet and amicable young ladies. I am glad that you enjoyed yourself so much at Carrie's wedding and I regret it very much that I could not be present. But the will of our God first, than ours. Respect that you also belong to that secret society of which Mrs Maurice Mayer has told the boys so much after and of which she has promised that ...become a member. It is the society of the "rule that works.....way". I am glad that you also have such a good opinion of her and of all. I heard about her I think she must be...an angel or "any other man". I was glad to see in your letter the description of the fight at V..... and the fire on Manassas. We have heard of both through letters from home but have never been able to learn any particulars. News is very scarce. There is not even the slightest skirmishing done. Some say we will not have any more fighting and others think that this silence is only like the quietness before a storm and woe to the enemy if they come. The next general engagements will prove undoubtedly the bloodiest of the war. From every town , city and village of the north will ascend the despairing wail of the miserable beings who gave birth to the drunken hoards who triumphed over us at Missionary Ridge. But so mote it be. The eighth day of next month has been set apart by our president as a day of humiliation and prayeralmighty God may bless us to enjoy a speedy peace and a free and happy young giant nation. I fear your wish will not be realized about Charles and myself it is not about his coming he is free but I am not. I have too many masters....will close hoping that I may soon have the pleasurefrom your and that this may reach you enjoy....good health.....that this struggle will soon end in the independence of this country and that peace once more may spread its beneficial blessing over us. I remain your affectionate friend, Simon Schman. Give my love to your brother and my regards to Mr & Mrs Stoddard and the Jolly Club. Don't forget to write soon Lemons D again That thar up thar is a tear. In that corner thar. Simon & Oscar send their love." Letter has fold tears and tape down center. It is displayed between glass panels. (MG)
